

2. Types of Sentences

Worksheet 1

A Put the correct end punctuation and identify the type of the sentences. Write Declarative, Interrogative, Imperative or Exclamatory.

1. How beautiful the sunrise is _____
2. When do you think we shall meet again _____
3. Put those shoes away, please _____
4. Dr Ambedkar studied at Columbia University _____
5. Do you know the reason behind the migration of birds _____
6. Please shut the door when you leave _____
7. What a brilliant idea she had _____
8. Our neighbours have moved to Mysore _____

B Write the correct negative form of these sentences.

1. I speak Kannada very well.

2. Were you at home in the evening?

3. Speak without raising your hand first.

4. The sugar was enough in this shake.

5. Did you have the cake I sent you?

C Rearrange the words to make correct sentences. Punctuate them correctly.

1. have / a / made / salad / delicious / you / what

2. you / with / help / please / my / can / homework / me

3. suits / dress / her / really / her / new

4. brother / few / applying / my / to / abroad / a / is / universities

5. me / for / if / wait / back / I / don't / minutes / in / come / don't / ten

6. you / interesting / find / do / grammar

D Write appropriate questions for the given answers.

1. _____
It is dollars.

2. _____
No, the show begins at 4 o'clock.

3. _____
My mother is a doctor.

4. _____
Sure. I will be happy to help you carry the luggage.

5. _____
Yes, I went to the museum on Saturday.

E Write Interrogative or Exclamatory for these sentences and punctuate them correctly.

1. What a terrible mistake you have made _____

2. What mistake have I made _____

3. How difficult was the question paper _____

4. How difficult the question paper was _____

5. Where did you find my wallet _____

6. How happy we all feel today _____

7. How happy do you feel _____

8. What clever answers you can think of _____